Ambis pantam can be presumed to put the right to the rightful holder. It might then that in addition of the Vira Raidu Mariyan Atiga the former have his other offices — Stanik and Annamarangadi Panicharikal. Looking in 1907 Anjila Chan has been appointed Christian Carpenter. No doubt he is an energetic man and taking interest in his Temple. A reward he has given in his Christian Carpentership. It appears for to consider the Raidu Mariyan seat Vacant and to restore it to the original hereditary family. If this View is approved Anjila Chan may be heard before any Sub-Council to show cause against order

When Governor Cox appointed to the office of Circuit Paymaster, it was given to him as a duty to make it a condition that he should vacate the office ... that no such condition was enforced, and it was not the custom to require him to give up evidence of term. Sort of recognisable claim to the office.

It is open to doubt whether Sugalachan was given the appointment as a hereditary one in 1871. But he & his deceased son held it continuously since then & an order of Govt has transferred it to his grandson. There are no proper grounds for reconsidering that order.

The Pattis claim may again be rejected as being altogether unfounded (reasons being given) and he may be informed that he cannot derive any benefit from repeating his petition
